Researching properties, answering phone calls, making offers, processing paperwork, and identifying and managing buyers, sellers and investors. As a real estate investor, you are faced with a mountain of tasks each day. The VirtualInvestorPlus solution combines everything you need to efficiently manage your business, qualify leads, and market your properties in a simple, cost-effective package. This easy to use system will allow you to place your real estate business on auto-pilot, while you focus on building new relationships and growing your business.

3 Powerful Components to Boost Productivity & Reduce Costs

VirtualInvestorPlus.com

VirtualInvestorPlus.com puts the power of technology to work for you. This robust Web interface allows you to store your contact information, market your properties and track your business all from a single system. Built from the ground up to take advantage of the Internet - with nothing to install and minimal training required - VirtualInvestorPlus.com can be up and running in days and provides real-time access to your information anytime, anywhere.

Talking Home Assistant

Empower your buyers and investors to learn more about your properties with the Talking Home Assistant. From square footage to construction details, prospects can access your pre-recorded messages 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply calling your toll-free number and entering the associated property ID code.

Whether you are just getting started or you are a seasoned real estate investor, the VirtualInvestorPlus solution helps you stay in control of your business by enabling you to provide better service - more efficiently and at a lower cost!

Virtual Office Manager

With the Virtual Office Manager, you will enjoy a 24x7 answering service to ensure that your business' incoming calls are answered promptly and professionally. Our call representatives use proven scripts to pre-qualify buyers, sellers and investors, gather critical customer information and notify you for immediate action.

Numerous Benefits for Simplifying Your Business

Seize All Opportunities. With the Virtual Office Manager, you will never miss another opportunity again. Trained operators are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to pre-qualify your buyers, sellers and investors using our proven scripts. If there is an immediate opportunity from a motivated seller, you will be notified immediately for follow-up. And, best of all, with VirtualInvestorPlus.com, you have instant access to your contact information - anytime, anywhere.

Close More Deals. The VirtualInvestorPlus.com database empowers you with a state-of-the-art, Web-based system with search features allowing you to quickly and easily match buyers to your new properties. Additionally, the flexible reporting capabilities allow you to target your most qualified buyers efficiently and accurately.

Sharpen Your Competitive Edge. As technology spreads deeper into the business, real estate and investment communities, it is imperative to have a Web presence to remain competitive. VirtualInvestorPlus.com provides you with a professionally designed and maintained Web site for online property listings and information sharing.

Increase Conversion Rates. Focus your efforts on qualified, interested buyers, sellers and investors. Use VirtualInvestorPlus.com, the Talking Home Assistant and the Virtual Office Manager to gather critical customer information, deliver answers to frequently asked questions and provide detailed property specifics.

Lower Your Costs. Enjoy a proven and professionally managed Web system for a fraction of the cost of implementing competing software solutions. And, by automating multiple tasks, you can reduce your overhead expenses while significantly increasing your efficiency.

With its turn-key capabilities and easy-to-use functionality, the VirtualInvestorPlus solution possesses a wealth of features and benefits missing from competing solutions costing much, much more. Its unique blend of power and simplicity makes the VirtualInvestorPlus solution the clear choice for serious real estate investors interested in streamlining their business and increasing profits.
